WEEKLY NEWS

- Our school value for this month is Respect. Mr Rowley started the month of with an assembly exploring what 'respect' means and how we can demonstrate it to others.
- Our Yr. 5/6 footballers won all four games this week! Very well done to all.
- Thank you to those that came to our book sale. Hopefully you managed to grab a few bargains and jumpers at the same time!
- Year 6 had a great time at Wreake Valley today as they took part in a sports events morning.
- This afternoon we welcome Edward Argar MP to school. He had a guided tour of the school led by a couple of our School Councillors (Harry W & Jessica F). This was followed by a meeting with Miss Allison regarding signs on the main road to indicate where Broomfield Primary School is. Watch this space...

Just for a laugh...

Knock! Knock!

Who's there?

A broken pencil.

A broken pencil who?

Never mind, it's pointless.

I wrote a song about a tortilla.

- Well actually, it's more of a wrap.
