A hello from Broomfield!

Hello everyone...

I hear that lots of good work happened last week by all of you—well done. If you look on our school website (www.broomfieldprimaryschool.co.uk) in the children's section is our gallery. We have a selection of Star Wars photos as well as a sample of the work our school has been doing at home—so do have a look.

On Tuesday it is National Limerick day! A limerick is a humorous poem consisting of five lines. The first, second, and fifth lines must have seven to ten syllables while rhyming and having the same verbal rhythm. The third and fourth lines should only have five to seven syllables; they too must rhyme with each other and have the same rhythm.

Have a go at writing one yourself and send it to your teacher!

I can put them on the website for people to read.

Emily the cow is quite grand.
Attention she does demand!
She dresses in silk.
And will only give milk.
To the sound of a marching band!

There once was a man from Peru
Who dreamt that he swallowed his shoe.
He woke up in fright
In the mid of the night
To learn that his dream had come true!

Your teachers have chosen their Stars of the week. These are:

A hello from Broomfield!

Messages for families...

Dear all

I hope that you are still all managing at home and are safe and well. Firstly thank you for completing the virtual register and sharing your thoughts around schools re-opening. As you can imagine it was a mixed response but it has helped me gauge how both parents and children are feeling about a potential return back. As always the school has the safety and best interests of everybody at it's heart and no decisions will be rushed. The school will be guided by the Trust and the government. We are hoping for more detail based around the Prime Minister's announcement last night and I shall be in touch when more information becomes available.

The staff continue to provide daily activities for the children to complete and I am really pleased with the effort going into them. The school website has a selection of work in the gallery—please do visit.

Tomorrow is National Limerick day and I have asked the children to have a go at writing one and send it to their teacher. Please feel free to join in and send them too!

We have a selection of stationery and reading books in the school entrance. If you are running short of anything please do drop us a line via Studybugs and we can make sure that what you need is put out for you.

You are all doing a great job juggling things at home and work—thank you for all the help that you are giving our children.
